Administrative Regulation

Credit by Examination

Credit by Examination may be obtained by one of the following methods:

- Achievement of a score of 3 (three) or higher on an Advanced Placement Examination administered by the College Entrance Examination Board.
- Achievement of a score that qualifies for credit by examination in the College Level Examination Program.
- Credit by satisfactory completion of an examination administered by the college in lieu of completion of an approved course listed for Credit by Examination in the college catalog.
- Successful completion of an examination administered by other agencies approved by the college.

Determination for Credit Examination Administered by the College:

- The student must currently be registered in the college, in good standing and have completed 12 or more units in residence
- Courses open to Credit by Examination as listed in the College catalog
- Student has not attempted, completed or failed the course previously
- The course can not be at a lower level than the coursework the student has completed

Credits acquired by examination are not applicable in meeting unit load requirements for Selective Service deferment, Veteran's or Social Security benefits.

Credits acquired by examination shall not be counted in determining the 12 semester hours of credit in residence required for an Associate degree.

The maximum number of credits allowable for credit by examination units shall not exceed 30 units. Credit by examination units transferred from other institutions is counted toward this maximum.

The student's academic record shall clearly indicate that the credit was earned by examination.
