

DSL 147 World Geography I A

- locate and identify the physical geographic features of countries in North America, Latin America, Europe, Russia;
- describe the natural resources, climate and vegetation of each area;
- summarize and explain the population patterns, history, government, culture and lifestyle of each area.