

Program Outcomes Lifelong Learning Seminars

- demonstrate independence, confidence, and critical thinking skills through social interaction;
- demonstrate physical and intellectual skills that facilitate creativity and mental acuity through participation and social interaction;
- incorporate into their daily lives and practice, skills that enable them to create, review, describe, appreciate, relate and engage with others.