

LLS 072 Film Criticism

- Develop analytical tools with which to place films in a context that reflects concepts of community, social attitudes and diversity.
- Give examples from specific films to illustrate the development of social issues and cultural diversity in the 20th and 21st centuries.
- Discuss the impact of films on one's personal beliefs and their potential for supporting and stimulating broader awareness of one's position in society.