

Glendale Community College

Proposed Series of Activities and Programs Under Consideration
For Commemoration of the 100th Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide

April 2015

- Armenian Student Association exhibit relating to the Armenian Genocide
- Event featuring various speakers on the Armenian Genocide including video testimonials of genocide survivors
- Panel discussion on the development of Armenian literature since the genocide
- Armenian music presentation featuring Armenian music from various genres since the genocide
- Armenian art exhibit featuring works by GCC students
- Cultural Diversity Lecture including a panel discussion on the issue of Armenian Genocide and lack of justice resulting in other genocides and violations of human rights in the world since 1915
- Documentary video produced at GCC about the Armenian Genocide

The proposed activities and events above were explored at the first meeting of the Armenian Genocide Commemoration Ad Hoc Committee and are under review and discussion. If you have any ideas and thoughts about the commemoration, please submit them to Sarkis Ghazarian, the chair of the committee, at sarkis@glendale.edu