

ASSIGNMENT OPPORTUNITY ANNOUNCEMENT

English Leader for Student Equity

15% Assignment

Closing Date: April 17, 2017

Objectives of Assignment:

The role of English Faculty Leader for Student Equity is to work in collaboration with the other Faculty Leaders for Student Equity as well as with the English Division Chair, the Student Equity Committee Faculty Chair, and the Student Equity Administrator to organize and coordinate programs that help English faculty improve the academic success of students identified as disproportionately impacted in the Student Equity Plan. Specifically, the English Faculty leader will help develop programs and initiatives to improve the academic success of students in GCC English classes who are disproportionately impacted.

The English Faculty Leader will promote student equity by organizing and executing relevant English curriculum augmented by activities and events designed particularly for Disproportionately Impacted (DI) groups identified in the Student Equity Plan. English Faculty will learn how to incorporate best practices for various cultures represented in student groups; particularly those identified in the GCC student community as disproportionately impacted (DI) according to the Student Success Indicators in the Student Equity Plan. In this manner, faculty become more culturally competent and effective in their teaching, leadership, and collegial interactions, which contributes significantly to the campus culture overall through congruent behaviors, attitudes, and policy-making. The English leader will be expected to assist in the collection of data which measures the success of the projects in their division with closing the achievement gap for D.I students.

Supervision:

This position reports to the Student Equity Program Manager and the Academic Senate under the auspices of the Student Equity Committee.

The English Faculty Leader operates in conjunction with the English Chairperson, Student Equity Committee Faculty Chair, Student Equity Administrator, and other Faculty Leaders for Student Equity. Proposed programs and/or activities are subject to Division approval.

Tasks and/or Activities Required:

An English Faculty Leader:

1. Attends relevant training and state-wide conferences to gain experience in Student Equity.
2. Collaborates with other Student Equity Faculty Leaders and other grant-funded entities on campus-wide plans for programs that help English faculty improve the academic success of students identified as disproportionately impacted.

3. Updates the appropriate Student Success Indicators in the Student Equity Plan annually.
4. develops and assesses plans for accomplishing student equity goals within the faculty leader's discipline; particularly with respect to student populations defined in Title 5, Section 54220 (d) as disproportionately impact groups (DI groups) identified in the Student Equity Plan.
5. Works in tandem with the Student Equity Plan, appropriate GCC governance committees, and relevant individual programs.
6. Ensures the timely completion and submission of semester reports to the Student Equity Program Manager and the Academic Senate concerning closing achievement gaps for DI groups.
7. Initiates and promotes professional development workshops in collaboration with the Faculty/Staff Development Coordinator, geared toward English instruction on best practices for assisting D.I student groups.
8. Serves as a voting member of the Student Equity Committee. As part of the S.E committee, the Faculty Leader makes recommendations to the committee regarding proposals, renewal processes, and procedures.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Ability to interact effectively with students from a variety of cultures.
- Familiarity with on and off-campus resources useful to the program.

Released Time:

15% released-time per semester with Up to $1500 Non instructional hourly for summer.

Term of Assignment:

This assignment will be for two years and will be subject to annual review by the RT/EP Committee and the availability of funding. Assignment to begin Summer 2017.
