Join GCC Professors Elizabeth Bryer (Humanities), Robyn Fishman (History), and Cameron Hastings (Political Science) as they lead students across Spain! Learn about the country's history, art, culture, and politics during this amazing 26 day program. Courses include History of Western Europe (History 101), Creativity, Culture, and Society: Kaleidoscope (Humanities 117), and a Political Science Field Studies (048) with an emphasis on Spanish politics. While studying in Madrid, you can visit the Royal Palace, world class museums, or go see a bullfight. You will explore the sunny white villages of Andalucía, home of flamenco, cathedrals, and Moorish Spain on a tour of the region. Take in the unique architecture of Spain's most cosmopolitan city while you study in Barcelona. Famous for its paella, its beaches, and its independent spirit, Barcelona will draw you in with something fascinating to see around every corner. Do not miss out on this opportunity of a lifetime!
