

GLENDALE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

CLASSIFIED EMPLOYEES CODE OF ETHICS

The Glendale Community College classified staff will uphold the highest ethical standards in their service to students, the college, and the community. The goal is to create a college where everyone served will feel safe and welcomed.

Therefore, classified staff will adhere to the following:

Maintain and promote integrity and honesty in the service provided to our students, and college community;

Advocate and work to maintain a governance system based on equality, fairness, transparency and inclusiveness;

Provide equal treatment, respect, dignity and honesty to all constituents served by classified staff;

Demonstrate and promote respect for the diversity of all community constituents;

Advocate for the responsible use of public funds through the participatory governance process and fact-based evidence.
