

Photograph by DJ Kast

Summer
2017

Apply Now!

Summer 2017
offerings subject to Board of Trustees approval

For more information visit:
www.glendale.edu/baja

Biol 125/126

Marine Biology Lecture and Lab (4 units) in Baja California, Mexico

- Swim with whale sharks and sea lions.
- Observe whales and dolphins in their natural habitat.
- Explore and snorkel with friends in Baja.
- Discover the biodiversity of the Sea of Cortés!

June 19–July 1, 2017
at Glendale Community College

July 3–17, 2017
at our field station in Bahia de los Angeles, Baja California, Mexico

COMPLETE IGETC/GE REQUIREMENTS FOR TRANSFER

Space is limited – apply now!

Total Cost is $799 plus standard summer session enrollment fees

Limited scholarships available for qualified students.

For more information contact:

Dr. Javier Gago

(818) 240-1000 Ext. 5369 or fgago@glendale.edu

Baja California Field Studies Program

(818) 240-1000 Ext. 3159 or baja@glendale.edu