

Glendale Community College
Student Learning Outcomes English 189

Student Learning Outcome

Reading: Analyze a reading passage such as final exam prompt in order to identify topic and features such as developmental sentences and transitional expressions.

Assessment Method

Holistic Final Exam

Student Learning Outcome

Writing: Write an organized paragraph-length composition demonstrating understanding of the English sentence and rudimentary paragraph structure and which addresses topic and shows development through application of appropriate reasons, examples, and details.

Assessment Method

Holistic Final Exam

Student Learning Outcome

Interpretation and Evaluation: Assess a paragraph-length composition for unity, development, evidence, and coherence.

Assessment Method

Summative evaluation completed through activities such as peer review.