

Seeking

Success in

Statistics

Enroll in Math 336: Skills for College Success in Statistics

Math 336 is an optional 1 unit, 3 hours per week support lab. It is highly recommended for all Math 136 students without previous knowledge in Statistics.

Math 336 is designed to complement Math 136 in the development and practice of essential study techniques and course material for success in Statistics.

Corequisite: Math 136

Benefit from smaller class sizes, individual support, and fun hands-on activities using real-world data by taking Math 336 and improve your success rate in passing Math 136.