

SPRING 2019

AT 153 Introduction to Unmanned Aerial Systems

UAS or UAV (Unmanned Aerial Vehicles) have many uses. Emergency Services & Disaster Recovery; Security Services; Agriculture; Environmental Management; Urban Planning, Real Estate, Architecture and Engineering; Media and Communications; Business and Commerce; and Recreation and Entertainment.

AT 153 is an introductory course to understanding the functions, characteristics, regulations, and applications of unmanned aerial systems and vehicles. The course includes a detailed discussion in military, commercial, civil, and public settings. Lecture 3 hours.

Ticket #3211 • Wednesday • 1:40–4:50pm
www.glendale.edu/schedules