

The Glendale Community College Theatre Arts Department Presents

How I Learned to Drive

Written By: Paula Vogel

Directed By: Jeanette Farr

Set and Projection Design By:
Ronn Campbell

Lighting Design By:
Derek Jones

Costume Design By:
Megan MacLean

Props Master:
Nate Milisavljevic

GLENDALE COMMUNITY COLLEGE STUDIO THEATRE
APRIL 4-14, 2019
THURSDAY-SATURDAY AT 8:00PM & SUNDAY AT 2:00PM

The Glendale Community College Theatre Arts Department Presents

How I Learned to Drive

Written By: Paula Vogel

Directed By: Jeanette Farr

Paula Vogel's Pulitzer Prize winning story surrounding a now grown Li'l Bit, who ventures down memory lane of learning to drive and her formative years in Maryland. A story with lessons about the darker sides of life, and ownership and acceptance to those experiences, this journey continues to resonate for all in this transformative tale of abuse and power, and what remains as a result.

APRIL 4-5, 2019