Transportation Options

Bus

The local Glendale Beeline operates nine fixed routes serving Glendale, La Cañada Flintridge, La Crescenta, and Montrose. The Beeline complements the regional transit service provided to Glendale residents by Metro routes. See GCC's Public Transportation page for information on service to the College and student discounts.

Foothill Transit provides bus service from Downtown Los Angeles to southwest San Bernardino County. You can purchase a one-time pass or reloadable TAP card at any transit site or online. Please visit <http://foothilltransit.org> for more information on routes, schedules and fares, as well as a handy Trip Planner.

Metro

The Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority (Metro) is the transportation planner and coordinator, designer, builder and operator for L.A. County. They operate light rail, buses and van pool. See <https://www.metro.net/> for additional information on Metro schedules and fares. See GCC's Public Transportation page for information on service to the College and student discounts.

Metro Micro

Metro Micro is an on-demand rideshare service, similar to sharing an Uber/Lyft, offering trips within several zones in LA County. The service is meant to be a fast, safe and convenient option for quick trips around town for a low per-ride cost. See <https://micro.metro.net> for additional information on Metro Micro schedules and fares.

Metrolink

The Metro offers direct train service to Los Angeles and other southern California communities. See www.metrolinktrains.com for information on schedules and fares. Though the Metro and Metrolink are separate agencies, the TAP card is accepted across both systems. You can purchase a one-time pass or reloadable TAP card at any transit site or online. Don't forget to check for student discounts!

Amtrak Train

Amtrak has several routes connecting Southern California to other parts of the country. The closest stations is located at the Glendale Transportation Center (400 W Cerritos Ave, Glendale, CA 91204). Visit <https://www.amtrak.com/california-train-routes> for route information and fares.
