

SPRING 2020
CULTURAL DIVERSITY:
THE ROAD TO SOCIAL CHANGE
Lecture Series

MAITE PETERSON

Professor History
Glendale Community College

- Teaches courses on U.S. history and the history of American women
- Research outside of the classroom is focused on women's history as a social movement
- Has presented her work at the Western Association of Women Historians' yearly conference in 2016 and 2018
- One of the coordinators for Women's History Month at GCC

www.glendale.edu/culturaldiversity

HISTORICAL PATTERNS OF FEMINIST MOVEMENTS IN AMERICA:

WHAT'S IN & WHAT'S OUT AND WHY.

WHAT IS FEMINISM AND HOW DID IT BEGIN?

WHAT DOES FEMINISM LOOK LIKE TODAY?

IS FEMINISM STILL NEEDED?

THURSDAY, MARCH 12, 2020~
12:20-1:30 PM
KREIDER HALL

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
FLEX CREDIT AVAILABLE

This lecture is sponsored by GCC Sociology Club
Facilitated by JC Moore, Department of Sociology
Questions or Comments? jmoore@glendale.edu