TEA WITH ALICE AND ME

A SOLO SHOW

Performed & Written by Zoe Nicholson

Tea with Alice and Me is a solo show that takes the audience to women's tearooms and onto the street—Seneca, Selfridges, The National Women's Party, Women's Bookstores. Of course it is really about a cup of revolution served up in nonviolent direct action. From 1775 through today, Zoe takes you on her militant, revolutionary, feminist call to action. Hundreds of pictures and personal stories transport you to each time and place she describes.

Zoe Nicholson has been an equality activist, speaker, writer and organizer for over 50 years. She discovered Miss Alice Paul while fasting for the Equal Rights Amendment in 1982. Zoe has been studying nonviolent direct action, social justice and equity while spending her knowledge working in the Peace, Labor, Women's and LGBTQ Movements.
