

High School Diploma Program-Non-Credit Education

A high school graduation diploma may be earned by completing the requirements of the Non-Credit Education division of Glendale Community College. When a student has completed the requirements for the diploma of graduation, the Non-Credit Education division of Glendale Community College recommends that the student be awarded the adult high school diploma of graduation by the Glendale Unified School District.

Reference

Education Code, 1978 Edition, Section 78403, 8531

Adopted: 8/3/76

Revised: 3/31/83

Reviewed: 12/09/15; 02/22/19