

DECONSTRUCTING RACISM: A PERSISTENT AMERICAN CHALLENGE

A SEVEN-PART LECTURE SERIES PRESENTED BY THE SOCIAL SCIENCES DIVISION, ASGCC, AND STUDENT EQUITY

Thursday 6/11 5:00pm - 6:30pm 6:30 - 7:00 Q &amp; A	Friday 6/12 5:00pm - 6:30pm 6:30 - 7:00 Q &amp; A	Monday 6/15 5:00pm - 6:30pm 6:30 - 7:00 Q &amp; A	Tuesday 6/16 5:00pm - 6:30pm 6:30 - 7:00 Q &amp; A	Wednesday 6/17 5:00pm - 6:30pm 6:30 - 7:00 Q &amp; A	Thursday 6/18 5:00pm - 6:30pm 6:30 - 7:00 Q &amp; A	Friday 6/19 5:00pm - 6:30pm 6:30 - 7:00 Q &amp; A
Bias: (Un)conscious Manifestations Exploring the Roots of Discrimination and Racism	Construction of American Racism A History of How Institutional Racism Embeds Itself in the American Consciousness	Structural Inequality An Examination of the Systemic and Structural Problems That Often Fuel Racism and Discrimination	Historical Resistance to Institutionalized Racism in the U.S. A Discussion of Successful Attempts To Respond to Institutionalized Racism Through Various Modes of Resistance	Pro-Diversity/ Anti-Bias Education Creating Environments That Promote Diversity, Empathy, and Racial Equity for Children and Adults	The Push for Progress at GCC A Discussion of the Ways our College Community Has Worked To Respond to the Challenges of Discrimination	Closing Forum Closing Comments and Responses to Questions Collected From 6/11 to 6/18
Michael Dulay, Professor of Psychology Richard Kamei, Professor of Sociology	Beth Kronbeck, Assoc. Professor of History, Social Science &amp; Ethnic Studies Kevin Mack, Asst. Professor of History Maite Peterson, Instructor of History	Gordon Alexandre, Professor of History, Emeritus Mark Maier, Professor of Economics	Maite Peterson, Instructor of History Michelle Stonis, Instructor of History	Mary Jane Biancheri, Asst. Professor of Child Development William Sparks, Adjunct Assoc. Professor of Child Development, Former Education Analyst for US Commission on Civil Rights Sandy Somo, Asst. Professor of Sociology	Victoria Simmons, VP of Human Resources Student Rep., ASGCC Hoover Zariani, Director, Multicultural &amp; Community Engagement Center	Speaker Panel moderated by Michael Dulay, Professor of Psychology Fabiola Torres, Professor of Ethnic Studies Kevin Dimatulac, Equity Counselor, Cultural Diversity Coordinator