

DSPS presents

COMMUNICATION FUNDAMENTALS WORKSHOPS

Open to all students registered with DSPS
12:30pm-1:30pm

PRIZES ARE AVAILABLE!

March 11: Welcome Back and How to Communicate Effectively with Instructors

The kickoff to our spring sessions. We'll review email and phone techniques for clear communication with your instructors. Hosted by Rita, DSPS Counselor

<https://cccconfer.zoom.us/j/96950406484>

March 18: The Hows and Whys of Getting Involved on Campus (Events, Clubs, and ASGCC)

ASGCC reps will present on why campus involvement matters and different ways you can participate.

<https://cccconfer.zoom.us/j/94846679141>

April 6: Online Games and Activities

Interested in Discord, Twitch, Among Us? Learn about online platforms and games with ASGCC reps.

<https://cccconfer.zoom.us/j/99063645735>

April 22: Employment Skills—How to Interact with Coworkers

It's not always easy to get along with your co-workers. Denise, Molly, and Stephanie from Career Counseling will help us learn about appropriate workplace socializing.

<https://cccconfer.zoom.us/j/91421841146>

May 4: Family Interactions—Getting Parents and Siblings to Respect Boundaries

Learn how to communicate effectively with your parents and siblings to establish healthy boundaries.

Co-facilitated by Astghik Zakevosyan, MFT intern

<https://cccconfer.zoom.us/j/92482214404>

May 18: Celebration

Join Rita and DSPS personnel to celebrate your workshop successes!

<https://cccconfer.zoom.us/j/98315638997>

Questions? Contact Rita at rzobayan@glendale.edu

DESTIGMATIZE * EDUCATE * EMPOWER

If you require ASL/RTC services, please email Lead Interpreter/Coordinator Kim Weissman at kweissman@glendale.edu

DSPS thanks the Senate for the generous grant that makes these workshops possible.