Reopening Town Hall
Sponsored by Glendale College Guild and ASGCC
April 30, 2021 1:00 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

When will GCC return to offering in-person courses and services? What must be addressed for GCC to implement a phasing-in or full-opening of its campuses? Who is involved in making these important decisions focused on health, safety, and student access and success?

These and many other questions are in our minds as each day we receive new, and sometimes conflicting, information from national, state, and local county health officials.

To help faculty, staff, and students better understand what is being planned, Glendale College Guild and ASGCC are sponsoring a Reopening Town Hall to be held on Zoom this Friday, April 30, 2021 from 1:00 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

During the Town Hall, Dr. Michael Ritterbrown, Vice President, Instructional Services, will provide an overview of the latest draft of the Return to Campus plan. In addition, Vice Presidents Culpepper, Schlossman, and Simmons will join him in addressing areas of uncertainty not addressed specifically in the plan, based on questions previously submitted to the Guild and ASGCC.

All faculty, staff, students, and members of the public are welcome to attend. In the near future, CSEA and ASGCC will be hosting separate Town Halls as well.

Prior to attending the Reopening Town Hall, I urge you to read the attached “draft plan ongoing in development...”
