Administrative Regulation

COMMUNITY SERVICES

Offerings are established and maintained in civic, vocational, literacy, health, family and consumer sciences, technical and general education, including, but not limited to, classes in the fields of music, drama, art, handicraft, science, literature, nature study, nature contacting, aquatic sports and athletics.

Offerings are designed to provide instruction and to contribute to the physical, mental, moral, economic, or civic development of the individuals or groups enrolled in them.

Offerings are open for the admission of adults and of those minors as in the judgment of the governing board may profit.

General fund moneys are not expended to establish and maintain community service offerings.

Students enrolled in community service offerings may be charged a fee not to exceed the cost of maintaining community service classes, or classes may be provided for remuneration by contract, or with contributions or donations of individuals or groups.
