

2022 Transfer Application Overview

USC

When to Apply

December 1

Deadline for some Cinematic Arts programs, all BFA Dramatic Arts programs, all Music and Dance programs, and the Iovine and Young Academy.

February 15

Final transfer application deadline.

Application Requirements

- Common Application, accessible at admission.usc.edu/commonapp. We do not require the Common Application's College Report.
- Official transcripts from any and all colleges attended, showing coursework completed through fall and winter terms.
- Final, official high school transcript with graduation date.
- Portfolio, resumé and/or additional writing samples if required by major. Performance majors may also require auditions.
- Recommendation letters for some majors. Please refer to your program of interest for more information.
- International students only: Financial statement and TOEFL (in-person or home edition; however, we are not accepting the TOEFL Plus for China), IELTS (in-person or home edition), PTE Academic or Duolingo English Test scores. See the English Proficiency Criteria section at admission.usc.edu/international for more information.

For more information, visit admission.usc.edu/transfer.

Find your admission counselor at admission.usc.edu/find-your-counselor.

Merit Scholarships

All transfer applicants who apply for admission by February 15 are considered for USC Merit Scholarships. Other scholarships offered by organizations outside the Office of Admission may require an additional application. For more information, visit admission.usc.edu/scholarships.

Financial Aid

USC is need-blind in its admission process. Students are considered regardless of their ability to pay. For more information, visit financialaid.usc.edu or call (213) 740-4444.
