Vice President of Student Services Announces Retirement

Dr. Rick Perez, Vice President of Student Services, has announced his retirement effective June 2, 2018. Dr. Perez has served in higher education leadership positions for almost 37 years. He came to Glendale Community College as vice president in June 2007. His personable, collegial, and student-focused leadership has led to the increased quality and availability of student services programs at GCC. Beyond the college, Dr. Perez has been active in statewide organizations and been a mentor to many aspiring student success leaders.

The search process for the Vice President of Student Services position will begin February 7, 2018 with posting of the job announcement and conclude with Board action May 15, 2018. (see attached search process calendar and job description)
