

INCLUSION, DIVERSITY, EQUITY, AND ACCESS A STUDENT LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Call for Presenters

Associated Students of Glendale Community College, in partnership with the Office of Student Affairs, is thrilled to announce the second annual Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Access (IDEA) Leadership Conference held virtually on Saturday, March 5th, 2022. We invite you to share your knowledge and expertise with student leaders from community colleges across the great state of California.

As a token of appreciation, each session receives an honorarium of up to $500, split equally amongst session presenters.

Selection criteria: Proposals are evaluated based on overall appeal, target audience, and relevance to our mission, equipping student leaders with the tools to dismantle systems of oppression in an increasingly diverse world.

Eligibility: We seek innovative and dynamic proposals from Higher Ed professionals, change agents, practitioners, and community leaders that reflect our mission.

Application process: Your proposal should include your title, student-learning outcomes, and preferred format (i.e., workshop, roundtable, etc.). Please include a brief abstract describing your presentation, desired student-learning outcomes, and its relation to the summit mission. Presenters should be prepared to broadcast their sessions over zoom.

Format options: IDEA sessions include peer-to-peer learning sessions, roundtable discussions, workshops, and panel discussions.

Proposal Submission Deadline: Friday, February 4th, 2022
