1. Administrative Affairs

- Parking pricing was discussed, and GCC's control of on the topic
- It was suggested to make a decision right now regarding the budgeting of the parking, such as reducing the cost or making It free, however, a better understanding of GCC's budget is required before making the decision
- Solar charging for electric cars was suggested as a solution

2. Placement and Assessment

- Went over minutes and then talked about various topics such as CPR

3. Budget

- Cancelled

4. Enrollment Managment

- About 500k of debt has been taken care of
- Trying to set up payment plans with international students
- Small concerning drop when it comes to enrollment this winter
- Needs to do a better job with retaining international students because they're debt could get them deported and we lose money

- Contract with grad com has been finalized which gives us a new approach on marketing
- Fraudulent enrollments and applications are affecting the college though the extent is unknown
- We lose black and Latino students the most through the credit student pipeline

5. Institutional Planning Coord.

- Board meeting tomorrow which is a milestone for the accreditation process
- December 15th - uploading ISER to ACCJC
- Enrollment Update
- Winter enrollment for credit is down 11%
- We hope to see a smaller gap for spring 2023 enrollment
- Fall 2022 was looking better than other semesters
- Only 11% below fall 2021
- For noncredit we have an increase in enrollment
