XVI. New Business

1. SSCCC “March in March” – Discussion Item

- Decided that airfare was the best mode of transportation.
- Based on how many people we invite, we’ll need to consider the cost of possibly staying overnight, meals, transportation within Sacramento.
- People-wise, we’ll have information on who we should invite based on the turnout of the CCLC conference next weekend.
- We also need to schedule appointments with representatives who will also be at the CCLC conference.
- Reviewed what key points we’re advocating for.

2. SSCCC General Assembly – Discussion Item

- Decided that this event would strictly be AS represented.

3. Senator Application Process – Discussion Item

- Discussed deliberation process; the last interviews are today and Monday.

4. Spring 2024 Orientation – Discussion Item

- Finished orientation slides
- Planning possible icebreakers which will affect when we take photos, and just the overall structure of orientation.

5. Spring 2024 Executive Retreat – Discussion Item

- Tuesday, January 23 from 4-7 PM.

6. Spring 2024 AS Retreat – Discussion Item

- Location is still being discussed, will have a more tentative list next week.
- Leadership workshop ideas were discussed.

7. APIDA HM Night Market – Discussion Item

- ASGCC is looking into collaborating or sponsoring another night market on May 17. APIDA is also showing interest in ASGCC possibly hosting an anime night event.

XVII. Reports of Advisors

Andre Manukyan, Advisor

- We will start to receive interest payments on our $4 million bond next month.
- Looking into retreat locations, will have some options prepared for next meeting.

Dr. Tzoler Oukayan, Advisor

- One-on-one meetings can be rescheduled now.
- The college is working on an Athletic Hall of Fame that will occur on Sunday, April 8. ASGCC has been a sponsor in the past. This hasn’t been done since 2019.
- GCC signed an MOU with Yerevan State University in August to create a liaison between staff, faculty, and students of our college and theirs. Brought up the idea of collaboration between ASGCC and YSU’s student council. Additional collaboration with ASA would be good exposure. A meeting with their institution is scheduled online for a date in February.

XVIII. Announcements/Information

Elin Gharibian

- Shared that Senator Portantino supported Dr. Corrner’s bill that states that refugees shall pay in-state tuition.
- Discussed potential collaboration with Kiwanis for the annual duck race.

- Brought up the possibility of GCC clubs/organizations being involved.
