Program Agenda

Welcome Remarks and Lunch

12:30 to 1 p.m.

Enjoy lunch and light refreshments, and learn more about the GCC Pulitzer Center mission, as well as how to apply for a Pulitzer Center fellowship.

Women's History Round Table

1 p.m. to 1:50 p.m.

Prof. Michelle Stonis will discuss the application of women's history and gender studies on writing and journalism, and why a foundation in history is critical for writers. She will also examine resources and proper vetting of sources.

Journalism Presentation

1:55 p.m. to 2:45 p.m.

Dr. Reut Cohen Schorr will lecture on story organization, longform journalism and how to write in a way that commands editor attention. She will also go over leads that hook readers and the kinds of stories that editors look for.

Meet Our Fellows

2:50 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Hear from our 2023 and 2024 fellows, and ask about their experiences in representing our college in their prestigious roles.
